The International Realty, Inc. Welcomes 1Casa into The IMLS Family

1Casa Places Listings on The International MLS

Los Angeles, CA, April 20, 2011: 1Casa has granted their permission to share listings with The International Realty, Inc. and will be displayed on The International MLS. The International MLS provided by TheInternationalRealty.com provides an international MLS (Multiple Listing Service) with over 100,000 properties in 35 countries, and this will now increase to more than 40 countries. 1st For French Property joins the growing list of top agencies around the world to provide property listings to this new global portal and technology platform.

The sophisticated technology platform of TheInternationalMLS.com is a referral based system, bringing together agents and brokers from around the world. Carefully selected and approved real estate agencies worldwide post and update their listings and agree to a trusted business model where consumers will effectively and responsively be communicated with by real estate professionals on a timely basis.

"1Casa is a heavy hitter in Spain. Being a leader in Spanish Real Estate, it is a true pleasure for us to have established our new partnership we share with them," says CEO Dr. Daniel Nussbaum of The International Realty, Inc. "The International MLS allows agencies from around the world to not only market their properties globally but also ensure that consumers are followed up with immediately by the person who knows the most about the properties or areas they are interested in purchasing. We are honored to be able to represent 1Casa worldwide."
